

Consumer Protection Center

Guidelines for Submitting Inquiries Related to Promoting and Protecting Competition

Service Submission Instructions

This service is based on responding to inquiries and clarifications related to promoting and protecting competition, which are received by the Consumer Protection Directorate either in person or through the dedicated competition email "Competition@moic.gov.bh". Key topics include:

1. Laws, regulations, and decisions related to promoting and protecting competition.
2. Arrangements and practices that are anti-competitive.
3. Market shares related to a dominant position and economic concentration.
4. Prohibition of abusing a dominant position.
5. Exemptions for Government-owned or managed enterprises.
6. Exemptions required by public interest.
7. Exemptions for small and micro-enterprises.
8. Exemptions for topics subject to the regulation of international conventions and treaties.

General Guidelines:

- Not applicable.

Required Document:

- Not applicable.